Independent Party Wins Election With Soniker and Green

Workers Put on Drive to Place Their Men.

A Record Vote Cast

Election Method Left No Doubt As To Correct Voting and Working

At the polls last week the students elected Francis Soniker, of Maitland, to the office of Student President for the coming year. Vernon (Bud) Smith, of Independence, was selected as the Vice-President. A hot contest throughout the day kept the party workers for all candidates busy "pulling votes."

Francis Soniker, running on the independent ticket, lead the field with votes which gave him a ninety per cent vote margin over his nearest opponent, Ford Bradley, Maryville. Bradley, Sigma Tau Gamma candidate, was well ahead of the third candidate in the race, Paul Shell, of Skidmore. Bradley ran on the Sigma Mu Delta ticket. One of the outstanding features of the years selections was the quietness and lack of mud slinging that has crept into school elections at times in the past.

The Vicepresidential race Green won by a slightly wider margin than his opponent, Gerald Stigal, Henry, Mo., than did Soniker over Bradley. Frances Shamberger, running the Mu ticket with Shell polled a large number of votes than did her runnermate.

Next year will be Soniker's last one. Here he has served several terms in the student senate and was a delegate to the National Student Federation Congress at Washington, D. C., during the Christmas holidays. He is a member of Alpha Phi Sigma, honor-scholarship fraternity and of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, and the Slingers Union, Residence Hall Association.

Green is President of the Sophomore class at the present time. He is a letterman in Football and Basketball and a member of the Bearcat track team this season until he received a minor injury a short time ago. The new officers will be installed at a future date.

Each of the girls who attended the convention were presented with a loose bracelet, bearing the insignia of the society, by the Balfour jewelry company.

Several very entertaining hours were devoted to that included a visit to the Tarkio ranch, where the cow boys acted as hosts. Other interesting places of presentations were: A dramatic presentation, "Rich Man Poor Man" at the West Texas Teachers College; a visit to the Panhandle Plains Historical museum; Luncheon at the El Taro rooms at Amarillo, Texas.

REPRODUCTION OF OLD ENGLISH PRINTING AND ILLUMINATION BY COMMERCIAL ART CLASS

Miss DeLuce's Commercial Art class, Arts 41, has on exhibit some work illustrating Old English printing and illumination. This consists of framed reproductions and booklets of decorative appearance printed and embellished with colors and gold or silver paint. Illumination, in art, is a term applied to the embellishment of written printed text or design with colors or gold, and rarely, silver. The more expensive books contained the more expensive they were. Formerly only the books developed in the middle ages were of brilliant ornamentation, but it has been extended to the illustration and decoration of early manuscripts in general. The production of precious illuminated manuscripts survived by early a century the introduction of the printing in the fifteenth century. The small books represent this illuminated manuscript type of printing and the reproductions the more decorative and expensive type.

Some of the members of the class have been doing some diploma lettering, of which some examples are in the case.

The members of the class are: Grace Teitel, Madge Peniston, Iketh Arbogast, Kathryn Gaywood, Reva Grace, Lorine Wilson, Fran Weiden, Raymond Hammond, Bernice Pence, Henry Robinson, Mary Slaughter, Oletha Carr, Agnes Cutler and Helen Bassett.

Marion Guilliams, who was in school here last year, dropped into town this morning to visit with Dan Blood. "Gus", as he is known to his friends is in the clothing business in Kansas City, Missouri.

Kappa Omicron Phi National Conclave a Huge Success

Picking up thirty one students from other colleges on their route to Canyon, Texas last week made a merry party for the Kappa Omicron Phi delegates who were enroute to their fifth national conclave. The Maryville delegation left here on Tuesday and traveled in a special bus from Kansas City to Canyon. They were met in Kansas City by the delegates from Warrensburg and Peru. On the trip the delegates were visitors on several college and university campuses. At Winfield, Kansas the troupe were joined by delegates from that school and other nearby institutions.

Miss Hettie Anthony, national president of the organization and its organizer, presided at the sessions of the conclave, which was held at Canyon, Texas, on the campus of the West Texas Teachers College. Miss Ruth Blanshan, of the Home Economics department, was conclave chairman.

Hi-Y Group Meets With College Y. M. Wednesday Night

Gospel Team to Harmony Church Next Sunday Morning.

Trip Last Sunday Was Made To Lawson, Eagleville and Excelsior Springs

The Hi-Y Club of Maryville high school and the Student Y. M. C. A. held a joint meeting Wednesday night in Room 205 at the College.

Robert Geist, president of the Hi-Y Club, presided. Oliver Gray conducted the devotional. During the giving of sentence prayers, the room was darkened and an electric cross, loaned by the First M. E. church, was lighted. Music consisted of a vocal solo by Ray Dull; a selection by the high school quartet composed of Dan Corneliuson, Tom Carlson, Zellus Thompson, and Robert Cockayne; a violin solo by Wayman Smith.

C. James Velle was the accompanist for the College soloists. Mrs. Fern Crull accompanied the quartet.

George Mark Hamilton, of the Hi-Y Club, and George Walter Allen, president of the Y. M. C. A., gave talks. The "Y" meeting next Wednesday night will be given by the members of the organization living outside of Maryville. C. F. Gray is planning the program. Homer Black will be the speaker.

Sunday the gospel team will conduct a morning service at Harmony church, northeast of here, and at night will be in charge of a union service at the Christian church in Pickering.

Last Sunday the gospel team went to Lawson and Eagleville. A group of Lawson residents, headed by Supt. Clyde Rowland, entertained the College group at a dinner at the Royal Hotel in Excelsior Springs following the service at Lawson. The College quartet was called upon by the hotel manager to sing for the guests in the lobby following the dinner.

DORM PARTY

The girls of the dormitory held a costume party Wednesday night at 9:30. Ruth Strange presided as chairman of the committee for the party. Prizes were offered for the three cleverest costumes, which went to Helen Minter who represented Poor Richards Almanac, Georgia Schultz as Gandhi and Eunice Scott as Lily the Lion.

Entertainment was furnished by dancing, a grand march, and games. Refreshments of candy bars were served.

A Grammatical Kiss

A kiss is always a pronoun, because "she" stands for it. It is masculine and feminine gender mixed; therefore common. It is a conjunction because it connects. It is an interjective; at least it sounds like one. It is plural because one calls for another. It is singular because there is nothing else like it. It is usually in apposition with a caress; at any rate, it is sure to follow. A kiss can be conjugated, but never declined.

It is a preposition because it governs an objective "case."

However, it is not an adverb, because it cannot be compared, but it is a phrase that expresses feeling.

Short Course Opens April 23. Attend Short Course This Year. No Increase in Prices for Short Course.

Social Science Club Hears Miss Shepherd on Russia

Much Literature About Russia Is False Says Speaker.

Youth Move Strong

Widest and Most Comprehensive Educational System In the World Today

Miss Shepherd gave a very interesting and timely discussion on "Russia" before the Social Science Club Tuesday night. She explained the many difficulties with which the Russian Government has had to cope, including the nationalization of thirty separate governmental units and one hundred and eighty different peoples and languages. The speaker termed the Russian situation "the largest country in the world trying the greatest social experiment in the world". The effect of the success or failure of this experiment will be registered on every country in the world.

"The Five-Year Plan was not suddenly put into effect. It has been brought about through an evolutionary process of growth dating back to 1918. In 1921, the first State Planning Commission was appointed. In 1925 and 1926, experiments were made with one year plans. In 1928, the first Five-Year Plan was put into use. This plan embodied the Government's regimentation and control of all economic forces.

"The Russians realize that education must be the basis of their huge experiments. As a result of this realization they have the most comprehensive and widest system of education to be found in the world today." Miss Shepherd pointed out that the Russian people are exceptionally alert and willing to learn. This is contrary to anti-Russian propaganda. "The Russian school is a school of freedom. It is characterized by child activity. In many instances."

Intra-Mural Kitten Ball League Into Fourth Round Monday

With tonight's game between the Sigma Mus and the Barkatzes included the third round of the Kitten Ball League will be completed.

Winning teams of the week are the Puritan Club, Barkatzes, and the Rat exterminators. The first game of the week, played on Monday between the Rat exterminators and the Sigma Mus, showed plenty of baseball and a real sixth inning rally. Winning out 3 to 0, as a result of "bunching" their hits in the last half of the fifth, the Rats stayed at the top of the team standing with three victories and no defeats.

A much slower game was in progress Tuesday, when the Barkatzes and Y. M. C. A. battled to a score of 9 to 5 in favor of the "yell squad". The "Y" boys held a substantial lead until late in the fifth when seven men crossed home plate for the opposition.

With extraordinarily good infield support Cooke, Puritan Club moundman, was able to hold the Crows' Mules to one hit and as many runs in Wednesday's contest. The Puritan Club got to Benson, Mule Hurler, for seven hits and three runs.

Chorus of 1,200 Nodaway County Boys and Girls Sing Concert Here Saturday

The annual Nodaway County chorus of children from the rural schools sang in the College auditorium Saturday under the direction of C. James Velle.

Over 1200 children, about double the number in the chorus last year, took part. The program, which lasted over an hour and a half, was supplemented by several specialties.

Many people had to stand during the program. Seats were taken long before 1:30 o'clock, the time set for the program of this annual event.

This large assembly of young singers presented an impressive picture. The singers filled every nook and corner on the stage, extended into the orchestra pit, which held bleachers especially for this event, and even filled several rows of seats in the middle and side sections ordinarily occupied by spectators.

Opera, "Hansel and Gretel" Will Be Staged Today

Matinee and Evening Performances to Be Given by Professional Group.

Students Will Be Admitted on Regular Activity Cards at Afternoon Performance

Maryville's first opera in a number of years, "Hansel and Gretel," which will be staged at the State Teachers College at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, and again at 8 o'clock that night, will bring to this city hundreds of people from surrounding towns. The matinee is expected to attract school children. It is known that several schools plan to attend the matinee in groups.

The opera should appeal to everyone as it will be sung in English, and the story on which the opera is based is familiar to most people. "Hansel and Gretel" stands forth as one of the most popular classics of the lyric stage. Willard Rhodes, director, has selected a group of American opera stars. The personnel has remained unchanged through several successful seasons. The performance is characterized by a naturalness of action, minute attention to detail and a high regard for devotion to the fundamental principles of art.

While Humperdinck's masterpiece is known as a children's opera, it is equally appealing to adult tastes. It is based on a German nursery story that is current in all land in one form or another. Hansel and Gretel, the witch, the father and the mother, the sandman, and the dwarf all become very real in the hands of the opera artists who portray them.

Reserved seats are available at Kuche Brothers. College students will be admitted on their activity cards, but must pay a small fee in addition if a reserved seat is wanted. This is the major entertainment for the spring quarter. The opera is sponsored by the Newman club.

Illinois, which has won the four-mile relay six times in the past eleven years, and holds the relay record at 17:37.8, will enter teams this year in the mile, half and quarter relays. Carroll, Hellmich, and Christianson, who were here last year, will be on the Illinois teams this year.

While "Dick" and the Alumni Secretary looked out of the north windows of the Alumni office Saturday noon, they noticed the little green wooden framed entrance-way or exit from the northeast end of the old gymnasium where the College men used to leave the dressing rooms for the old athletic field. In the comments which followed the two looking out of the windows wondered just how many Bearcats had hiked out that exit way, hopped over the walk which runs east and west across the north side of the Administration building to shield sore feet (and the cement walk) from the pressure of spikes or cleats.

Sixty-one Shows Will Dedicate St. Louis' Big Hall-- April 14-28

INTERIOR—OPERA HOUSE

ST. LOUIS, MO.—To celebrate the opening of the new $8,000,000 Municipal Auditorium, 61 shows have been scheduled for the two-week housewarming, April 14 to 28.

Every type of entertainment, from children's dancing recitals to Grand Opera sung by internationally famous stars, will be presented during "the greatest event since the World's Fair," and Mayor Bernard F. Dickmann's auditorium dedication committee has announced that the Opera House, the Exposition Hall, two theaters and two assembly halls—all under the same roof—have been booked to capacity.

Diversified Program
The Opera House features will include: five performances of Grand Opera, produced by Guy Gilbey and starring Elisabeth Rehnberg, Guido Gudi, Martinelli, Luceria Bori, and Emily Roosevelt; a religious pageant, featuring a massed chorus drawn from St. Louis churches, April 15; a collegiate revue by St. Louis and Washington universities, April 16; a concert by the Musician's Guild, April 17; a program of folk dances by the International Institute, April 18; "Black Majesty," a pageant of Negro progress, April 20; Radio Station WLL, featuring radio stars, April 22; Radio Station KSD "Stars of Tomorrow" program, April 24; and a Rosa Ponselle concert, produced by Oscar Cordon. After April 28, the Opera House is booked until May 4 with Grand Opera, concerts, and meetings of the National Folk Festival.

The Exposition Hall will house "St. Louis on Parade," an industrial exposition, covering 100,000 square feet. The women's little theaters committee will produce 33 performances, by musical, dancing, and dramatic groups in the East and West theaters, April 14 to 28.

Assembly Hall attractions include: the first annual St. Louis Municipal Art Exhibition, April 14 to 28 in the West Hall; a flower show by Shaw's Garden and the St. Louis Park Commission; Boy Scout and Girl Scout exhibitions; a quilt exhibit; and a show, dramatizing the functions of St. Louis Municipal government.

"Something for Everyone"
James E. Darst, manager of the auditorium, stated that in response to Mayor Dickmann's invitation three months ago every organization in the city was participating, directly or indirectly, in the opening festivities.

"Our objective of providing something for everyone in the way of entertainment," he said, "has been attained."

The gigantic building, which covers a full city block and rises to the height of 14 stories, dominates the Memorial Plaza, financed by the $7,000,000 bond issue of 1923. Preparatory to opening, the Indiana limestone facings of the building have undergone a final bath, two golden bronze based flagpoles have been erected and the finishing touches have been put on the velour and gold-leaf decorated Opera House.

The stage between the Opera House and the Arena, which are separated or thrown together at will by two 57-ton, electrically-driven, sound-proof curtains, is second only to the Hippodrome stage of New York in size and equipment. A musician who recently inspected the building, declared that "someone ought to write an opera with a character in it, respectively for the Municipal Auditorium."

Fred Lindsey, who was recently graduated from the College, has written Dr. Anthony of the College Faculty concerning his work at the University of Missouri. He says that the students, who are doing the special social work, attend five different courses, have discussion groups, special lectures and special meetings. In all they meet classes about 24 hours a week and work fifteen hours to pay expenses.

The work is well presented, and they are learning many of the problems of rural social work, according to Mr. Lindsey, who says that among their instructors are Dr. Morgan of the Rural Sociology Department and Dr. Guild, head of the Kansas City Relief organi-

All Snugged Down!

LITTLE AMERICA, ANTARCTICA, (Via Mackay Radio)—And now Admiral Byrd is out there, 123 miles away in his 9 x 13 x 7 feet high shack under the snow, on his terrible, lonely vigil of more than six months and we are all packed down comfortably for the long Antarctic winter here at Little America.

The fierce South Polar winter is almost upon us. Already we have looked at the thermometer and found the figures "69 below zero" staring at us. We have only about four hours a day of sunlight. Yesterday the darkness came at one o'clock in the afternoon after one of these amazing Antarctic sunsets.

Simply, in preparation for beauty. On April 19 the sun will disappear completely and the leader of this expedition will be out there in that but all winter, for four months of which he will be in total darkness, with only candles for light. And outside his hut will rage the most violent weather known on this globe—blinding blizzards, wind screaming at 150 miles an hour—and 80 to 90 degrees below zero. It is one of the most amazing feats ever attempted. I am praying for him, that he will not get a sprained ankle, well, any of the other things that could happen to him. We expect to be in touch with him by radio at all times.

Here we have plenty to do preparing for the great exploits we hope to accomplish from next October to February. There is a never ending variety of work going on daily. Albert Ellifsen, of Tromsø, Norway, is building new dog sledges. Vernon Boyd, of Turtle Creek, Pa., is installing a wind-driven generator on top of a sixty-foot tower (and he'll have lots of wind to run it). Dr. Poulter, of Dunedin, N. Z., our leader here, is working all the time, mostly making cosmic ray observations. William C. Haines, our meteorologist from Washington, D. C., is constructing a weather observatory. Dr. Louis Potaka, our new New Zealand doctor, is arranging the sick bay (which is sailor-man talk for hospital). Ed Moody, of Tamworth, N. H., is making dog harness. Finn Ronne, from Pittsburgh, is showing his Norwegian skill in mending skills, (which I've learned to pronounce "sheez"). Clay Bailey, radio man, from sun-kissed Brawley, Calif., is tinkering with the electric generators so I can get these stories out to you people in the club better. Kenneth Rawson, our young Chicago navigator, is repairing and adjusting his instruments. The archeologist, Walter Lewison, of New York, one of our 13 scientists, is snapping everything in sight with a camera. Linwood Miller, of Highland Park, Ill., official sail maker, is repairing our wind proofs.

LeRoy Clark, from Cambridge, Mass., and his pal, Stephenson Corey, from Winchester, Mass., are digging boxes of food and clothing out of the snow and parking them properly. One of the boys from New Zealand, Bernard Fleming, is constructing a big new snow melter for our drinking and cooking water.

Francis Dane, of Lexington, Mass., has the sweet job of cutting up seals for dog food, while his buddy, Alfonso Carbone, of Cambridge, Mass., our cook, works until midnight, every night, baking our bread, and the rest of the time cooking our other food. Bill McCormack, of Lansdowne, Pa., pilot of our Kellett Autogyro, is trying to keep that trusty and valuable machine from being buried completely in the snow. I am as busy as a bee preparing orange colored tanks of Tydol gasoline and Veedol motor oil for the automotive campaign beginning next October against the mysteries of this strange land and, in between, our regular jobs. Comdr. Noville, Capt. Innes-Taylor and I are constantly working to dig our swell new hut out of the snow.

No monotony, no heavy time on our hands. Lots of exercise, lots of health. Not a sickness germ within 2300 miles of us. It's a great life, no fooling! Just got a radio from the club secretary that he has received a new supply of the beautiful big working maps which the club is sending, free, with membership cards, to everybody who joins the club, for which there is no charge whatever. To join one of the world's most interesting organizations, without obligation of any kind, simply send stamped, self-addressed envelope to C. A. Abele, Jr., president, Little America Aviation and Exploration Club, Hotel Lexington, New York, N. Y. and your membership card and map will be sent you promptly. Be sure you write your name and address plainly as I understand a number of our letters sent out to prospective members have been returned to us marked "not found".

Science Club Hears Miss Shepherd on Russia

The children are allowed to and to dismiss their own teaching. The project method of teaching is used widely. Excursions are taken at government expense to the various parts of educational interest. The Russian student believes that subjects are related and therefore are correlated and interlaced instead of being isolated into separate subjects. The government has entire control over this most important instrument of success—education. No book can be published until it has been approved by the government censorship. The children are trained in appreciation of art and the theatre. It has been said that no country in the world outside of Japan is giving so much attention to the aesthetic side of life. The Youth Movement is a very important organization in Russia. Almost every youth is a member, whether he is in a factory or school. This organization is important as a means of instilling morals into Russian life. Stress is put on this organization because it will do much good in helping their entire experiment to succeed. Miss Shepherd said that much of the literature written about Russia was by Many American writers and observers who have a prejudice against Rus-
